The Palm Oil Run

The A-Site

Down Polo Road, past the Solar Farm then right turn down past the Polo Club into the sand pit areas. Very quiet, very private and lots of space for parking. Cloudless sky and 28°C, 75% humidity, perfect for running...NOT. There was a very good turnout with over 100 people showing up.

The First Circle and On Out

Called by our GM stand in SCAR W/2TS who introduced the hares who then explained their run and the markings. Red Checks/FT's and Blue Back Checks, around 6.5 km distance for the Rambo's, 4 Km for the Wimps and off we went into the Palm Oil Plantation.

The Run/Walk and On In

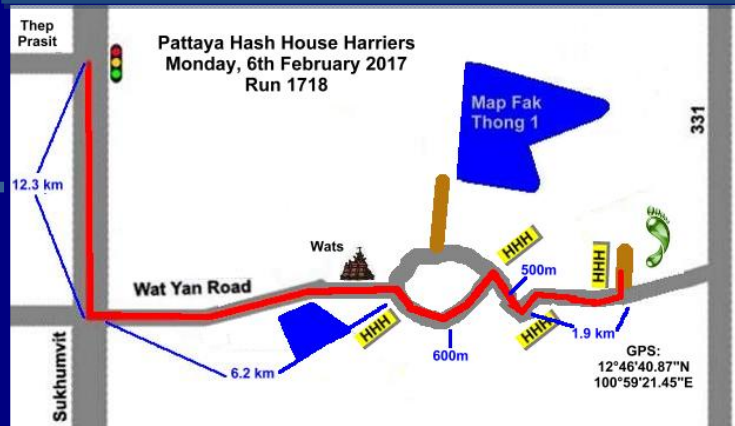

The well-marked trail led through the Palm Oil plantation dirt roads with everyone playing follow my leader, as you could see for miles ahead where the trail went, but no one was complaining as the 3km Rambo/Wimps split came up and the Wimps came in 1km later. SEAL SUCKER, as usual, much to all the Wimps delight, was first back.

A Note on Palm Oil for Those Visiting the Area

Palm oil is grown in Thailand (Malaysia and Indonesian) traditionally for its oil, which is semi solid at 20 °C. It is extracted from the "bunches" that grow between the fronds on the trees. The semi solid oil is fractionated by heating up to 80 °C and cooling down slowly to 28-24 °C where the Palm Stearin crystallises and is then filtered out. The liquid fraction Palm Olein is that nice yellow oil that you see on the shelves in Big C/Tesco. The stearin was traditionally used in Margarine production and was also used in Cocoa Butter (Chocolate fat) substitutes that go into chocolate in the UK. Recently the stearin has been in great demand for Biodiesel, which is incorporated at the 5% level in Thai Diesel.

The Raffle

After the usual cooling down period, the GM ordered the second circle and FREE WILLY got the weekly Raffle underway.

A-Site Mis-Directions:

From Soi Thep Prasit drive South along Sukhumvit Road approx 12.3 km to Soi Wat Yansangwararam (Wat Yan). Drive past the Wat Yan tourist complex, following the road past the car park area and up the hill. At the T-junction (6.2 km from Sukhumvit Road), turn right (HHH). Continue for a further 600m and turn right again (HHH). Follow this road for 500m and turn left (HHH) and drive 1.9 km. Turn left (HHH) into the A-Site 70m in amongst the rubber trees. The site is 200m from Highway 331 if coming the other way.

Hare Song & Hash Hymn

REDCOAT gave a fine rendition of "Nothing could be finer than to Nung Pan your regina in the morning" and finally all the Thai girls lead the ensemble in the hash hymn.

Observation from the Scribe

Having visited many hashes in the ASEAN region it's always interesting to watch how people perform in the circle. There are those who obviously have had some management experience and swan into the circle, oozing confidence, taking all the banter from the circle on the chin and giving as good as they get. Then there are those who have not had said experience and shout and bully their way through their performance, telling everyone to shut up and listen to them, thereby killing the atmosphere in the circle...shame!

On On to the AGM next week where allegedly "NO MORE CUM" will be re-named "ALREADY GONE".

On-On ! Burl Ives

Next Week's Scribe is Redcoat
